Election and Terms of Office of City Commissioners

City Commissioners shall serve four (4) year terms instead of two (2) year terms. Elections shall take place in November of even numbered years instead of in March of each year. The terms of the current Commissioners are extended to accommodate the new election schedule. The organizational meeting shall be April 1, 2018 and in each December thereafter.

Tie Votes

The current charter provides in the event of a tie vote between two (2) or more candidates, a runoff election will be required to resolve the tie, with a tie vote by lot, e.g. drawing straws. It is proposed that a tie vote be resolved in the first instance by a lot under the direction of the City Clerk, without the need for separate election.
